

MT. STERLING ADVOCATE.

"FIRST TO LAST—THE TRUTH: NEWS—EDITORIALS—ADVERTISEMENTS"

VOLUME XXIX.

MT. STERLING, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, JULY 1, 1919.

NUMBER 1

DECORATED AUTOS IN PARADE

Handsome Prize to the Person Having the Prettiest Car. Parade to Start at Public School

The managers of the Big Fourth of July Celebration, Peace Jubilee and Soldiers' and Sailors' Homecoming, to be held Friday, are arranging to start the festivities of the day with a big parade which will start in front of the Public School promptly at 9 a. m.

A prize of $5.00 is being offered the person having the most attractively decorated automobile in the parade, and all children having ponies or pony rigs are urged to be on hand in front of the school at 8:30 o'clock in order to form in line and take part in the parade. The parade will be headed by Storm's American Military Band, besides which the band of the street carnival will also take part. Everybody is invited to take part in the parade and help in making the day a big success. Soldiers and sailors are asked to be in uniform on this day and the management will appreciate it if they also will take part in the parade.

Added features are being made to the program as originally arranged and some prominent men in the affairs of the State are expected to be present. Time will be allotted for the making of patriotic speeches from the judge's box in front of the grand stand at the Fair Grounds and such memorable documents as the Declaration of Independence and President Wilson's address before Congress asking that war be declared against Germany will be read.

All indications point to a very large crowd in town on this day and everything possible is being done in order to afford them a day of genuine entertainment and pleasure. Citizens of the city are asked to appoint themselves a reception committee to assist in the entertainment of the thousands of visitors expected.

Another feature of the big Fourth of July Celebration will be the Kaplan Greater Shows. A number of clean, high-class attractions which will be tented on the vacant lots on the corner of Bank and Locust, and Mayaville and Locust streets. The shows will play here the entire week, beginning Monday, June 30th. On Thursday the management will donate to the Mary Chiles Hospital fund ten per cent. of the money taken in on that date.

Friday,
JULY 4th.

—AT—

The Liberty Theatre
JEWELL PRODUCTIONS
Present
Lois Webber's Big Feature
Production

"Borrowed Clothes"

featuring the former Mildred Harris, the present
MRS. CHARLIE CHAPLIN

WM. DUNCAN
in

"THE MAN OF MIGHT"
Night Shows Only at 7:30
and 9:00 o'clock

Prices 9 and 18c plus tax

SENTINEL-DEMOCRAT SOLD

Squire Turner on Saturday sold the Sentinel-Democrat to S. K. Vaught, of Winchester, who immediately turned the paper over to Judge E. W. Senff, of this city. It is understood a stock company will be formed and G. B. Senff will be its editor. Mr. Senff has been connected with the Advocate for the past nine years and is well qualified to keep up the standard set by the Sentinel-Democrat for the past quarter of a century. Mr. Squire Turner, the retiring editor, has been prominently connected in local journalism for the past thirty years and is considered one of the most convincing writers in the State. His retirement is indeed a loss to the local newspaper fraternity. H. B. Turner, former local editor of the Sentinel-Democrat, who is also a very capable newspaper man, has not decided what business he will engage in, but states that he has retired permanently from the newspaper field. The retirement of both father and son from the field of journalism is deeply regretted by many friends throughout the State.

To the new owners the Advocate extends greetings, and under the capable guidance of Mr. Senff the Sentinel-Democrat is certain to continue to prosper in the future as it has in the past.

MARRIED IN DENVER

This morning's mail brought to friends and relatives in this city handsomely engraved cards announcing the marriage of Miss Abbie Gaile Bailey, of Ardmore, Okla., to Mr. Charles Hays Dye, of Denver, Colorado, the wedding having been solemnized at the Savoy Hotel, Denver, on June 17th. Mrs. Dye is a sister of Mrs. L. G. Howard and has frequently visited in Mt. Sterling, where she is well known and quite popular. Mr. Dye is a prominent and wealthy attorney of Denver, in which city the couple will make their home at 925 South Pennsylvania avenue.

PARTY FOR VISITORS

Miss Laura Ray Crooks has issued invitations to a five hundred party, Wednesday afternoon at her home in the country, in compliment to her house guests, Misses Marjorie and Elizabeth Botts, of Ashland.

PROCLAMATION

No county nor city in the State of Kentucky contributed a greater proportionate part toward the winning of the great world war than did Montgomery county and the City of Mt. Sterling. Twenty-three of our sons laid their lives upon the altar of Liberty and many have returned to us bearing the honorable scars of battle. Therefore it behooves us as a patriotic and appreciative people to follow the lead of our sister cities of the great Commonwealth and mutually and collectively band ourselves together for a united thanksgiving and celebration of the signing of the treaty which officially ends the war that has brought untold suffering, death and destruction to a great part of the whole world.

Therefore, in accordance with the proclamation of the Governor of Kentucky, we, the undersigned County Judge of Montgomery and Mayor of the City of Mt. Sterling, do hereby call upon the citizens of said county and city to lay aside their tasks insofar as it is possible on Friday, July 4, 1919, and join in the general celebration which will be held in honor of the return of "Peace Upon Earth and Good Will Toward Men."

E. W. SENFF, County Judge
W. R. McKEE, Mayor

CHAUTAUQUA BEGINS JULY 8

Redpath to Open Annual Engagement in This City Beginning Tuesday, July 8th.

The Redpath will give its annual Chautauqua in Mt. Sterling beginning Tuesday, July 8th, and continuing for seven days. The program this year is a most excellent one and we feel no hesitancy in saying that those who attend will enjoy themselves to the utmost. The Chautauqua is undoubtedly the most popular attraction that appears in Mt. Sterling during the year, and, as usual immense crowds are expected to be present for each performance. As in past years the Chautauqua will be held under a mammoth water proof tent in the rear of the High School yard, and arrangements are being made to comfortably handle the large crowds that are anticipated. The program this year will be as follows:

Tuesday, July 8, Afternoon—Introductory Exercises. Concert—Orchestral Sextette; Night—Concert, Orchestral Sextette. Lecture—"Getting Together"—Ada Ward, of London, England.

Wednesday, July 9, Afternoon—Concert, Harvesters Company. Lecture—"Community Health"—Miss Florence Ballard, an official Red Cross Nurse; Night—Concert—Harvesters Company. Lecture—"The New Competition"—R. E. P. Kline.

Thursday, July 10, Afternoon—Concert, Great Lakes String Quartette, Presidential orchestra on S. S. George Washington; Night—Grand Concert and the Great Lakes String Quartette.

Friday, July 11, Afternoon—Prelude. Lecture—"The Great Highway"—Charles Zueblin; Night—Prelude. Debate—"Shall the Government Own and Operate the Railroads?" Affirmative—Charles Zueblin, noted publicist, formerly of Chicago University; Negative—Hon. Leslie M. Shaw, former Secretary of the Treasury.

Saturday, July 12, Afternoon—Bohumir Kryl and His Band; Night—Grand Concert by Kryl and His Band.

Monday, July 14, Afternoon—Lecture—"The Spirit of the Women of France"—Marie Rose Lauer; Night—Comedy—"It Pays to Advertise."

Tuesday, July 15, Afternoon—Grand Concert, Metropolitan Quartet. "Uncle Sam's Folks"—Alton B. Packard, master cartoonist and entertainer.

Children's hour will be held each morning as usual and will be a feature of the week's entertainment.

SERIOUSLY HURT

Jace, the 14-year-old son of Geo. Richards, was racing his pony on the Hinkston pike last Friday when the animal caught a front shoe, turning a somersault and breaking its leg, throwing its rider violently to the ground. The boy was picked up in an unconscious condition and carried to his home. Medical aid was summoned and the lad's skull was found to be fractured. He has since been in a serious condition and was taken to Lexington this morning for an operation in hopes of saving his life.

CALLED TO LOUISVILLE

Mrs. A. J. Gatewood left yesterday for Louisville, having been summoned there on account of the critical illness of her father, Mr. Gathright.

Prof. W. O. Hopper was unanimously re-elected a director of the Kentucky Educational Association.

The Advocate for printing.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mrs. Edward J. Shackelford announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Priscilla, to Mr. Robert Young, of Bocos del Toro, Panama. The wedding will occur the latter part of July.

Miss Shackelford is the youngest daughter of the late Edward J. Shackelford and Mrs. Shackelford and is one of the prettiest and most popular members of the younger society set in this city. Her sunny disposition and her extreme amiability have endeared her to a wide circle of friends both old and young alike.

Mr. Young is the son of Mrs. Maggie Young, of this city. He was born here and made Mt. Sterling his home until a few years ago, when he removed to Panama. He is a man of sterling worth and has worlds of friends and relatives here who will rejoice with him in his good fortune. Mr. Young holds a responsible position with the United Fruit Company and is stationed at Bocos del Toro, Panama, where the couple will make their future home.

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY

The Rev. and Mrs. Clyde Darsie were guests of honor at a reception given in the church parlors Friday evening by the women of the church, it being the twentieth anniversary of their marriage. Receiving with them were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Strossman, Mrs. Fannie Goodpaster and Mrs. Macie Baum Biggerstaff. Presiding over the punch bowl were a quartet of lovely young girls: Misses Frances Hazelrigg, Mildred Gatewood, Mattie Pinney and Ruth Darsie. The hours were from seven to ten, and almost the entire membership of the Christian church, other local pastors and their wives called during these hours to pay their respects to this well-loved pastor and his equally beloved wife.

Delicious refreshments of cream and cake were served throughout the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Darsie's anniversary gift from the congregation was a handsome Haviland China dinner set of the gold band design.

SALYER GIVES BOND

The examining trial in the case of the Commonwealth against Claude Salyer was held Saturday morning before County Judge Earl W. Senff. Salyer was held to the October term of court under a $10,000 bond, which he gave. The defendant is represented by attorneys Henry R. Prewitt and W. B. White. Salyer, it is alleged, shot and instantly killed Green Cole at the former's home at Camargo last Monday night. He claimed that Cole was trying to rob him.

HONOR CONFERRED

At the Kentucky Bar Association in session at Lexington last week our fellow-citizen, Judge Lewis Apperson, was chosen President of the Association. This honor could not have fallen to one who would perform the duties with more dignity and ability than Judge Apperson. The selection is an honor worthily bestowed, and by him the Association will be most favorably graced.

RETURNS FROM DETROIT

J. D. Wren, accompanied by English Baker, went to Detroit last week and drove two Dodge cars from the factory. Mr. Wren engaged with the company to have a car load of Dodge machines here by the tenth.

ATTENTION, BURLEY TO-BACCO CO. STOCKHOLDERS

Your 1919 dividend checks will be handed you at the Montgomery National Bank upon presentation of your stock certificates.

Burley Tobacco Co.,
Lexington, Ky.

TREATY SIGNED, WAR ENDS

Will Meet Terms, Say Huns. Foe Delegates Put Names On Document First.

The war was formally ended Saturday by the signing of the peace treaty with Germany.

The epochal meeting in the Hall of Mirrors began at 3:10 o'clock, and the German delegates, the first to sign, affixed their signatures at 3:13 o'clock. They were followed by the American delegates, headed by President Wilson, and then by the plenipotentiaries of Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan. The representatives of the minor powers signed in alphabetical order.

China's delegates did not attend the session, declining to sign the treaty because they were not permitted to make reservations.

President Wilson and the Americans completed signing at 3:14 o'clock. The American delegation signed in this order: President Wilson, Secretary Lansing, Henry White, Colonel House and General Bliss.

General Jan Christian Smuts, one of the delegates representing the Union of South Africa, signed the treaty under protest. He objected to certain territorial settlements, making a lengthy statement.

The protocol was signed by all those who signed the treaty. The Rhine arrangement was signed by the Germans, Americans, Belgians, British and French plenipotentiaries.

At 3:44 o'clock cannon began to boom announcing the completion of the ceremony of signing. The signatures had not, however, as a matter of fact, then been completed, for at that time the smaller nations were still signing in alphabetical order.

The proceedings were formally closed at 3:49 o'clock.

Foreign Minister Mueller and Colonial Minister Bell, German signatories of the treaty, made the following exclusive statement:

"We are signing without mental reservation. What we are signing will be carried out. The German people will use every means to meet the terms.

"We believe the Entente will, in its own interest, find it necessary to change some of the terms, or they will see the treaty is impossible of execution.

"We believe the Entente will not insist on delivery of the Kaiser and other high officers.

"The Central Government will not assist in any attack on Poland.

"Germany will make every effort to prove herself worthy to enter the League of Nations."

Although the peace treaty has been signed the war will not be officially ended until the treaty has been ratified by all the nations involved. President Wilson has issued a statement urging Congress to ratify the treaty without reserve. He has already started on his journey to America.

LUNCHEON FOR VISITORS

Mrs. D. C. Fox was hostess today at a luncheon at her country home, complimentary to her house guests, Mrs. James Gager and Miss Marie Gager, of Chattanooga. Seated at the beautifully appointed table with the hostess and the honorees were: Mrs. Dan Chenault, Mrs. George Snyder, Mrs. Harry G. Hoffman, Mrs. Carroll Hamilton, Mrs. Dan Prewitt, Mrs. George Vignetti, of Lexington, and Miss Josephine Chenault.

It will pay you to read the Classified page today.

49 YEARS IN BUSINESS

The change of the advertisement of J. W. Jones, the jeweler, appears in another column. We almost shake from fright while we pen the following item relative to Mr. Jones. The item tells the truth and makes him out an elderly man—you see why we shake. Mr. Jones' appearance, his continuous work, tell a very different story. July 2nd Mr. Jones will have been here in the same business 49 years. He began his trade with P. L. Reese, deceased, later worked with St. Julian, deceased. Forty-five years ago Mr. Jones opened shop for himself and has been in the store-room now occupied by him for fifteen years. On July 2, 1920, Mr. Jones will have been in the same business fifty consecutive years. It will be time then to celebrate.

Mr. Jones has one of the largest stores in the South and is enjoying a very fine trade. Much of his business is in diamonds and other fine stones, and is largely done by mail orders.

J. Ross Jones, his son, is an expert in this business, much of which is entrusted to his management.

Long live the J. W. Jones store.

UP-TO-DATE FOUNTAIN

AT THE TABB

Manager Wm. B. Small, of The Tabb Theatre, who recently purchased the fruit store of R. D. Parsons adjoining the theatre, has installed a beautiful fountain in the lobby of the theatre and has had a portion of the lobby railed off and placed a number of attractive tables and chairs in this department. The lobby as now arranged is quite attractive and presents an inviting appearance. All kinds of soft drinks will be on sale at all hours as well also a fine selection of candies and fruits. The new business was opened last week with Mr. John Duty temporarily in charge, and a splendid patronage has been enjoyed from the start. Mr. Small is a hustler and is in every way deserving of the patronage of the people. Since coming to this city he has made himself quite popular and enjoys the confidence of all.

ALWAYS!

Keep a plentiful supply of advertising always on hand to insert in the parcels of your customers. This is the cheapest way known of getting circular or handbill advertising matter into the homes.

ACCEPTS POSITION

William May has accepted a position as manager of the new cafe at The Tabb Theatre.

THE TABB Theatre

Adolph Zukor Presents
William Faversham
in
"The Silver King"
A Paramount-Artcraft
Special

By Henry Arthur Jones
Scenario by Burns Mantle
Directed by Geo. Irving
William Faversham! The great emotional star who has made as striking a success upon the screen as upon the stage. Ever see him? He's a wonder.

"The Silver King," tremendous on the stage, is even greater on the screen. Hot and cold thrills run up and down your spine.

SATURDAY, JULY 5
Matinee & Night
Prices 13 and 22c plus tax